

Machine Gun Case

1. 1977: Five decommissioned WW1 Lewis machine guns were designated for various replica period aircraft.
2. 1997: MJK purchased the DH2 aeroplane and 'gun' from a private collection with its log books and other Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) paperwork identifying the 'gun' as an integral part of the fuselage.
3. 1998: The 1968 Fire Arms Act was amended meaning that if the 'gun' remained as it had first been decommissioned, it remained exempt from the new regulations. This became the critical argument in the trial.
4. 2000: The DH2 was flown at the Farnborough Air Show by invitation of Captain Brian Trubshaw of 002 Concorde fame.
5. 2006: The DH2 was moved to RAF Lyneham, Wiltshire, for repair and display with the 'gun' dismounted.
6. 2007: The DH2 and 'gun' was handed out, by the RAF, to a civilian for further repair.
7. 2008 MJK sold the aircraft and gun to another display pilot who modified the gun for his own purposes.
8. 1st June 2009 Multi Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA) were mobilised by South Wales Police hoping to shoot or jail MJK, under the Mental Health Act. This followed the Chief Constable having signed a false affidavit on 25 Feb 09, in the ongoing civil damages claim for false imprisonments and malicious prosecutions, in which she denied knowledge of police incidents, court cases and breaking into MJK's veterinary surgery.
9. 8th June: MAPPA meeting categorised MJK as Level 3 (top 5% most dangerous) as 'being in possession of the machine gun and ammunition' based, the court was later told, on photographs and sale adverts, all dating back to the year before and some as far back as 2001, when advertised for sale in CAA and other aviation journals.
10. 18th June: MJK obtained entry to the offices of the Chief Constable, at Bridgend HQ, for the purposes of arresting her for falsifying the affidavit. Also, the need for 'mutual exchange' of witness statements, on a court deadline of 19th June 4pm, meant MJK took them with him to her office. Armed police surrounded the building.
11. 19th June: Solicitors for the police also refused to 'exchange' and laid complaint of 'threat to commit criminal damage' when Maurice suggested they may then be delivered through their front window, attached to a 'girt brick'.
12. 21st June: A sizable armed police raid on MJK's home, with helicopter, was aborted only because, the court heard, later, MJK was 'at home' and could only be arrested 'when away from it'!
13. 22nd June: He is arrested, in his village, for 'possession of a machine gun, ammo and threats of criminal damage'. New owner was telephoned by CAA to deposit 'gun' with a gun dealer where Welsh police seized it.
14. 23rd June: He is charged with possession of machine gun and its resale, with original seller and recipient as prosecution witnesses!
15. 24th June: Barry Magistrates gave unconditional bail which was immediately overturned on CPS Appeal.
16. 25th June: MJK was remanded in custody by Cardiff Crown Court, despite there being no evidence of 'likely to abscond', 're offend' or would 'commit a crime'. Nine further judges refused bail until the acquittal.
17. 2nd December: CPS and doctors pleaded in Cardiff Crown Court, using falsified NHS medical records, to have MJK sectioned to a High Security Psychiatric Prison, for life. The foresight and an already prepared defence, by way of a privately funded neuro-radiologist's report, served on the court the day before, saved the day.
18. 25th January 2010: The trial had to proceed but relevant disclosure and access to MJK's witnesses were refused.
19. 9th February: Cross examination of police was seriously restricted so the jury heard no defence evidence at all. The Jury informed MJK their verdict was concluded after the very first day of evidence. Cross examination of police confirmed they had also modified the 'gun' to protect their prosecution witnesses.
20. April. The trial judge refused Maurice any costs, not even for the transcripts of hearings in his absence, ordered to be reimbursed by The Recorder of Cardiff, HHJ N Cooke QC, or bus fares incurred by his witnesses.
21. 24th June: Judge Cooke sent MJK to prison for 28 days, arguing for the disclosure of the falsified medical records and reversed his earlier order that MJK was to be reimbursed for the court transcripts.
22. Feb 2011: NHS refuses to disclose Dr Tegwyn Williams and Professor Roger Wood's falsified medical evidence.
23. DAMAGES are sought for malicious prosecution, false imprisonment, fraudulent sectioning and for their deliberate delaying the civil action against South Wales Police that had been running for 18 years.
24. The entire Welsh National Health Service has now closed ranks in the multi agency cover up.
25. Only a Government Remedy can compensate for the violation of human and professional rights by authorities.
