Dear Case Worker,

Appeal against Breach of Restraining Order Conviction

Only by Bristol Crown Court's repeated intervention have I been able to now obtain at least a few of the pages of contemporaneous record from the Cardiff Magistrates court log, the latter having written , more than once, stating I that am not entitled to it.

Within the late released pages, one enclosed, AFTER my 2nd May 12 Crown Court hearing for 'Breach of Restraining Order ', subject to your appeal, there is a sealed set of Crown Court and/or Administrative Court Orders for 'when Mr Kirk is convicted'.

Several of my Judicial Review Applications were then current and have now been heard , again with my being quite unaware of the 'sealed brown envelope's content that directly related to them.

I make application for the disclosure of the content of His Honour Judge Christopher Llewellyn QC's 'sealed brown envelope' as there will be or there was, before they got warning , a finally drafted Restraining Order, no doubt.

Should the court require that I have available the most accurate record of the full deliberations of District Judge John Charles Cardiff Magistrate's, leading to the purported service of a Restraining Order, on allegations contrary to 1997 Prevention of Harassment Act, then I will supply.

Thankyou

Maurice J Kirk BVSc
