Would you become a good neighbour?

Good Neighbours Scheme is actively seeking volunteers to help older people in need of a "good neighbour" in their homes.

Volunteers include shopping, providing transport to the hospital, small practical tasks, returning library books or offering a cup of tea and a chat. The scheme is based in the Senior Health Shop on Holton Road, which is run by Age Concern South Glamorgan.

Very often it is the little things in life that make the difference to older people. Anyone from the age of 17 can volunteer to help people who are lonely or in need of a "good neighbour".

Mr Kistry Macdonald said, "The sort of help our volunteers provide is complementary to that of other statutory bodies. Anyone from the age of 17 can volunteer to help people who are lonely or in need of a "good neighbour".

Mr Kistry Macdonald said, "An hour or so of help can make a difference to someone who is lonely or in need of a "good neighbour".
